Examiner's Detailed Office Action

1. This Office is responsive to the communication for application 09/854,084, filed September, 12, 2005.
2. Claims 1-24 have been examined.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 101

3. 35 U.S.C. 101 reads as follows:

Whoever invents or discovers any new and useful process, machine, manufacture, or composition of matter, or any new and useful improvement thereof, may obtain a patent therefor, subject to the conditions and requirements of this title.

Claims 1-8 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 101 because the claimed invention is directed to non-statutory subject matter. The claims are considered to be directed to an algorithm or software or a computer program that does not meet the standard set forth in the State Street Bank case of being tangible, useful, and concrete. In this instance the claims are not considered to be tangible since no real world result is provided. A "computer implemented method for action selection" does not produce a real world result that is tangible and concrete, i.e., the mere selection of an action does not make it or any consequents extant.

Response to Arguments

4. Applicant's argument filed September, 12, 2005, with respect to 101 rejection for claim 1, has been fully considered but is not persuasive. The invention embodiment set forth in claim 1 may produce a practical application (selecting actions), but it does not produce a tangible real-world results as the selection is a state of the computation of the invention embodiment.

5. Applicant's arguments, see communication for application 09/854,084, filed September, 12, 2005, with respect to 101 rejections for claims 9-16 and claims 17-24, have been fully considered and are persuasive. Claims 9-16 and 17-24 claim a machine and an article of manufacture, respectively, and are thus statutory. The 101 rejection of claims 9-16 and 17-24 has been withdrawn.

6. Applicant's arguments, see communication for application 09/854,084, filed September, 12, 2005, with respect to 103 rejections, have been fully considered and are persuasive. The 103 rejection of claims 1, 3-9, 11-17, and 19-24 has been withdrawn.

Reasons For Allowance

7. Claims 9-16 and 17-24 are allowed.

8. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: Applicant's arguments, see communication for application 09/854,084, filed September, 12, 2005, with respect to 101 and 103 rejections for claims 9-16 and 17-24, have been fully considered and are persuasive.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."

Conclusion

9. THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a). A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
